You are here: Get started

Get started

My Courses from Pearson puts all your MyLab and Mastering products in a single location. To download or print instructions to get started, see the Instructor Quick Start Guide.

Learning management system (LMS) customers: If you access your course from your school's own learning management system, see LMS Help for instructors.

  Create your first course

  Enroll students in a course

  Copy courses

  Explore the My Courses page

  See the student My Courses page

For additional assistance and resources see Get support.